

Photos from the Announcement of an Historic Agreement on Teterboro Airport Operations

Pictured:

Congressman Rothman signs the Teterboro Airport Industry Working Group's "Pledge to the Community," an historic agreement to make Teterboro Airport quieter, safer and more secure for employees of Teterboro Airport, and for the hundreds of thousands of people of Northern New Jersey that the airport affects.

Pictured

(L-R): Joe Fazio, station manager of Atlantic Aviation and Co-Chair of the Teterboro Airport Industry Working Group, Bill DeCota, Aviation Director at the Port Authority of NY & NJ, Congressman Steve Rothman (D-Fair Lawn), and Jim Coyne, President of the National Air Transportation Association and Co-Chair of the Teterboro Airport Industry Working Group.

Pictured:

Reporters take notes while Congressman Rothman announces the agreement reached to eliminate the loudest jets at the airport, create a curfew on flights between 11:00 pm and 6:00 am, keep heavy planes from ever operating at the airport, and improve safety and security.