

Congressman Rothman Meets with Members of the New Jersey Chapter of the Industrial Union Council

(Hackensack, NJ) –

On Thursday, February 19, 2009, Congressman Steve Rothman met with members of the New Jersey Industrial Union Council Labor Union in his Hackensack District Office. The group discussed issues ranging from the Employee Free Choice Act, to health coverage for all Americans, to the new Xanadu entertainment complex slated to open in the Meadowlands.

The New Jersey Industrial Union Council is comprised of manufacturing unions throughout the State that focus on key issues in trade, health care and labor law reform, including: Bakery, Confectionary, Tobacco Workers and Grain Millers (BCTGM), Coilmakers (IBB), Electrical Workers (IBEW), IUE-CWA, International Federation of Professional and Technical Engineers (IFPTE), Machinists (IAM), Mine Workers (UMWA), Sheet Metal Workers (SMWIA), United Auto Workers (UAW) and United Steelworkers (USW).

Pictured L to R: Lisa Ciccone, Business Representative for Local 195 International Federation of Professional and Technical Engineers; Paula Friedman, Bergen County

Central Trades & Labor Council; Rep. Rothman; Ray Stever, President of the New Jersey Industrial Union Council