

Congressman Rothman Meets with Civil Air Patrol Member from Bogota

(Washington, DC)

– On Thursday, February 26, 2009, Congressman Steve Rothman met with Emily Greiner, a member of the Civil Air Patrol (CAP) from Bogota, New Jersey. Rothman thanked Greiner for her service and learned about the role CAP plays in New Jersey, providing emergency services and aerospace education for youth.

Greiner is a seventeen year old student at the Academy of Holy Angels in Demarest, NJ. CAP is a Congressionally chartered, federally supported, non-profit corporation that serves as the official auxiliary of the United States Air Force. Membership in the organization consists of cadets ranging from 12 to 21 years of age, and senior members 18 years of age and up.
