

Congressman Rothman Meets with Members of the New Jersey Association of Realtors

(Washington, DC)

— On Wednesday, March 4, 2009, Congressman Steve Rothman met with members of the New Jersey Association of Realtors (NJAR). The members spoke with Rep. Rothman about the current housing climate and how to increase options for health insurance to small businesses.

NJAR is a non-profit organization serving the needs of commercial and residential brokers and salespeople, property managers, appraisers, counselors and other real estate professionals. It was founded in 1917 in Atlantic City, New Jersey and now has over 53,000 members statewide. NJAR is part of the nation's largest trade organization, the National Association of Realtors.

Pictured L to R: Allan (Dutch) Dechert, 2009 NJAR 1st Vice President; Drew Fishman, 2009 Immediate Past President NJAR; Teresa Tilton, NJAR Director of Political Affairs; Judy Appleby, 2009 NJAR President-Elect; Rep. Rothman; Diane Dilzell, 2009 NJAR President; Jarrod Grasso, NJAR Executive Vice President

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: April 9, 2009

CONTACT: Carrie Giddins, 202-225-5061; 202-420-1524 (cell)