

Congressman Rothman Meets with Members of the New Jersey Chapter of the Lupus Foundation of America

(Washington, DC)

— On Tuesday, March 3, 2009, Congressman Steve Rothman met with members of the New Jersey Chapter of the Lupus Foundation of America. They shared with the Congressman their stories about life with lupus and why increased federal funding for research is so important.

The Lupus Foundation of America, New Jersey Chapter, Inc. (LFANJ) was created in 1975 by five young women from New Jersey who were affected by lupus. Each year, LFANJ provides services to more than 3,000 individuals affected by lupus. The Lupus Foundation of America is a national nonprofit voluntary health organization dedicated to finding the causes of, and a cure for, lupus. The organization also provides support and services to all those affected by lupus.
