

Amtrak Recognizes Congressman Rothman's Support for the Counter-Terrorism Unit

(Washington, DC) — On Tuesday, May 19, 2009, Congressman Steve Rothman (D-NJ), a member of the House Appropriations Homeland Security Subcommittee, met with Joe Crane, Commander of Amtrak's Counter-Terrorism Unit (CTU). Crane presented Rep. Rothman with a plaque in recognition of the Congressman's support for the counter-terrorism unit.

Amtrak's Counter-Terrorism Unit is responsible for preventing a catastrophic attack on America's commuter rail system. The Unit's Mobile Security Teams perform random bag searches, surveillance and explosives detection.
