

Statement from Congressman Rothman on the Opening of the New “Green” Meadowlands Stadium

(Washington, DC) — On Monday, June 1, 2009, Congressman Steve Rothman (D-NJ), made the following statement about the opening of the new, “green” Meadowlands Stadium:

“The Meadowlands is part of North Jersey’s identity. We are proud and responsible co-inhabitants and custodians of this fragile and beautiful environment. The Meadowlands Stadium, located amidst all of this natural beauty, is a model of what today’s new, green design and building should be.
