

Congressman Rothman's Statement on the Shooting at the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum

(Washington, DC) — Congressman Steve Rothman (D-NJ) released the following statement on the shooting at the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum:

"I want to express my appreciation to the heroic security officer for protecting the people inside the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum. My prayers are with his family, for he made the ultimate sacrifice.

"I am grateful as well for the other security officers who responded so heroically and professionally and stopped this mad man from further destruction.

"This incident should be a wake up call to everyone around the country and the world that hateful people really do exist and are not afraid to commit heinous acts of violence.

"We must remain vigilant and continue to defend against attacks like today's."
