

Congressman Rothman's July 4th Statement

(Washington, DC) — Congressman Steve Rothman (D — NJ) today released the following Independence Day statement:

“Two hundred and thirty three years ago today, the Declaration of Independence was approved by the Continental Congress and thirteen colonies, including the present day State of New Jersey, and they formed a nation.

“Our founders faced an uphill battle to defeat an army much stronger than theirs.

“This July 4th, we must remember those who have fought for and defended our country and those who continue to fight for our country today. It is because of their sacrifice that America enjoys our liberty and freedom and is the beacon of hope for all the world.

“To our brave men and women serving in uniform and our heroic veterans—thank you for your service.

Happy Independence Day and God Bless America!”
