

New Milford Students Thank Congressman Rothman for Fighting for Recognition of the Armenian Genocide

As part of the 95th Armenian Genocide Commemoration, students from the Hovnanian School in New Milford, NJ visited Washington, DC to thank Congressman Steve Rothman (NJ-9) for his leadership in the fight to recognize the Armenian genocide. As a member of the Congressional Caucus on Armenian issues, Congressman Rothman has been a reliable stalwart in not only his efforts regarding U.S. recognition of the Armenian genocide, but his work in securing more than $800 million in U.S. aid to Armenia since joining the House Foreign Operations Appropriations Subcommittee in 2001.
