Washington, DC – On Thursday, May 6, 2010, Congressman Steve Rothman (D-NJ), one of only two Members of Congress on both of the powerful House Appropriations Defense and Foreign Operations Subcommittees, and Congressman Brad Sherman (D-CA), Chairman of the House Foreign Affairs Subcommittee on Terrorism, Nonproliferation and Trade, hosted a briefing on Capitol Hill in the Rayburn House Office Building on Palestinian incitement and the latest report of these incidences from (PMW).

“Itamar Marcus, founder and director of Palestinian Media Watch, provides a great service by monitoring incidences of Palestinian incitement, including the promotion of terrorism, the glorification of murdering innocent Israeli men, women, and children, and intolerance against Israel and Jews. It is essential that those who are responsible are held accountable and that such actions stop altogether, immediately. The PMW helps us accomplish these goals," said Congressman Rothman.
