Washington, DC - On January 22, 2011, Congressman Steve Rothman (D-NJ) spoke at the Installation Ceremony of the New President for the Bergen County Police Chiefs' Association, Chief Brian Gurney of Ramsey, at the Fiesta in Wood-Ridge, NJ. There he congratulated Chief Gurney on becoming the 76th President of the Bergen County Police Chiefs' Association and recognized the new Bergen County Sheriff, and outgoing Association President, Sheriff Michael Saudino, of Emerson. Congressman Rothman also spoke of the service, sacrifice and bravery of all those law enforcement officers, and their families, when he said, "You are the thin blue line separating civilization from anarchy; and the safety of our families from danger and violence."
