Washington, DC &ndash; On March 16, 2011, Environment New Jersey Field Director Doug O&rsquo;Malley came to Washington, DC to thank Congressman Steve Rothman (D-NJ) for the Congressman&rsquo;s distinguished record of being a champion of the environment and his efforts to preserve the Hackensack Meadowlands. They discussed critical issues ranging from the importance of a robust Environmental Protection Agency to the latest short-term funding bill that passed the House of Representatives.
