Washington, DC – On June 23, 2011, Congressman Steve Rothman (NJ-9) presented the Congressional Award Gold Medal to Jonathan Mui, a high school student from Secaucus, NJ in the Congressman’s office in Washington, DC.

Jonathan has accumulated more than 1,100 voluntary public service hours with the People to People International - Go International For Tomorrow (PTPI-GIFT) organization and Wrap4ASmile since 2004. Students between the ages of 14 and 23 can receive the Congressional Award Gold Medal by completing over 400 hours of community service, 200 hours of both personal development and physical fitness activities, and a four night expedition or exploration.
