Washington,
DC –

On July 28, 2011, a delegation of Egyptian Generals came to visit Congressman Steve Rothman (D-NJ), a member of the House Appropriations Subcommittees on State and Foreign Operations; and Defense, in his Washington, DC office. They discussed security threats to Egypt, and the U.S. – Egypt strategic relationship. Congressman Rothman and the delegation also talked about the steps that the current Egyptian leadership is taking to ensure a peaceful transition to a stable, secular and democratic government and U.S. aid to Egypt for the coming year.

From Left to Right: Major General Mohamed Elkeshky,
Major General Ahmed El Moataz, Congressman Steve Rothman, Major General Mohamed Said El-Assar , Major General Talaat Hawari.
