Fort Lee, NJ – On Sunday October 2, 2011 Congressman Steve Rothman (D-NJ) spoke to hundreds of senior residents at the annual Fort Lee Senior Picnic. The event was hosted by the Richard A. Nest Senior Center which provides social, educational, and recreational programs to Fort Lee residents 55 years and older.

Congressman Rothman continues his fight for seniors, including stopping the efforts of some in Congress to privatize Social Security and Medicare. Congressman Rothman also spoke of the need for shared sacrifice from those making millions and billions of dollars a year to help the economy deal with the growing deficit and continue worthy programs such as Social Security, Medicare, education, veterans’ benefits, infrastructure repair, and tax reform.
