Fair Lawn Students Talk Policy with Their Congressman

(Washington, DC)&mdash;On Thursday, March 15, 2007, a group of honor students from Fair Lawn High School visited Congressman Steve Rothman (D-Fair Lawn) in the nation's capital to discuss our Iraq War policy, the crisis in Darfur, and national security. On Iraq, the dominant topic during the meeting, the students asked about the possibility of a proxy war between Iran, Syria and Saudi Arabia in Iraq if American troops are redeployed and how long is too long for U.S. troops to remain in the middle of an Iraqi civil war.
