Washington, DC – On February 28, 2012, representatives of the American Legion of New Jersey came to Congressman Steve Rothman's Washington, DC office to recognize the Congressman for his leadership in supporting Veterans programs and benefits. Specifically, they applauded Congressman Rothman for cosponsoring H.R.3895, the Protect VA Healthcare Act of 2012, which would protect the VA from an upcoming two percent budget cut. Representatives of the American Legion also thanked him for cosponsoring H.R. 333, the Disabled Veterans Tax, which would allow disabled veterans to collect both retirement pay and disability pay at the same time.
