Washington, DC - Congressman Steve Rothman (NJ-9), a member of the House Appropriations Defense Subcommittee, released the following statement:

Today, we honor the great heroes of our nation and the fallen men and women who made the ultimate sacrifice to defend our freedom and liberty. We are safe here at home because of our armed forces who are deployed throughout the world.

Everyday that we live in peace in America, we must remember the costs of liberty and those who gave their lives defending it.
