

Photo: Signing the Pledge for America's Schoolchildren

For Immediate Release: February 5, 2007

Contact: Kimberly Allen, (202) 226-8364; (202) 420-1524 [cell]

Congressman Rothman Signs the Pledge for America's Schoolchildren

(Washington, DC)—Congressman Steve Rothman (D-NJ) signed the Pledge for America's Schoolchildren during a meeting with the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA) on Tuesday, January 30. In the pledge, Rep. Rothman declares his long-standing support for improving the No Child Left Behind Act, funding education for students with disabilities through the Individuals with Disabilities Education Improvement (IDEA) Act, and helping local school districts provide students with 21st Century skills and knowledge, including math, science and technology. You can read the full pledge online at: <http://www.pledgetoamericasschoolchildren.org/pledge.php> .

Pictured: Rep. Rothman signs the Pledge for America's Schoolchildren with NJSBA representatives (left to right): William Barnaskas, President, Lyndhurst Board of Education; John Bulina, President, Tabernacle Board of Education in Burlington and NJSBA's Vice President of Finance; Kevin Ciak, NJSBA President and member of the Sayreville Board of Education in Middlesex; and Beth Politi, President, Pascack Valley Board of Education and President of the Bergen County School Boards Association.

###