

Federal, State and Local Issues

Federal

Understanding whether an issue is Federal, State or Local can get quite confusing, so please read below to see what your problem falls under.

A Federal Agency is an administrative division of the United States Government. There are hundreds of federal agencies, but the most frequently used are:

- Citizenship
and Immigration Services
- Department
of Defense
- Department
of Housing and Urban Development
- Department
of State
- Department
of Veterans Affairs
- Social Security Administration
- US
Postal Service

Possible cases that we can help with are, but not limited to: Immigration/Consular, Medicare, Social Security, Veterans/Military, Postal, and Housing Referrals. If this is a starting point for you, you might be able to solve this problem just by contacting the correct agency. Use the list above or you can see a complete listing of agencies by clicking below.
