Rothman Announces "Listening Sessions" Tour
Throughout Northern New Jersey
Will Host Town Hall Meetings This Year
In Each Of The 37 Municipalities He Represents In Congress

Hackensack, NJ - In an effort to address his constituents' concerns and hear their ideas, Congressman Steve Rothman (D-NJ9) today announced a "Listening Sessions" tour of all 37 municipalities he represents in Congress. The first round of these town hall meetings will be held from February 14-19 in public buildings throughout New Jersey's Ninth Congressional District.

"These 'Listening Sessions' will give the people of my district another way to share their thoughts and concerns with me about our region, the nation, and the world," Rothman said. "As always, I continue to strive to be as responsive as possible to the needs and concerns of the people I represent, which is why I strongly encourage my constituents to attend one of my 'Listening Sessions' in their town or surrounding towns. I want to know exactly what their priorities are and how they feel about the issues we are facing at home, across the country, and around the world so that I can best represent their needs and concerns in Washington."

Each "Listening Session" is open to all of Rothman's constituents, regardless of whether they live in the municipality in which the meeting is being held. The second round of "Listening Sessions" will be held during the summer. Those area residents with additional questions about Rothman's "Listening Sessions" tour are encouraged to call his office at 201-646-0808.
