Leonia Student Leader Alberto Alarcon Meets His Congressman

(Washington, DC)—On Thursday, February 28, 2008, Congressman Steve Rothman (D-Fair Lawn) welcomed Alberto Alarcon of Leonia to his office in the nation's capital.

Alberto, who serves on the Leonia High School Student Government Association, was in town for the National Young Leaders Conference. The event was organized by the Congressional Youth Leadership Council and focused on inspiring young people to achieve their full leadership potential. In addition to meeting his Congressman, Alberto had the opportunity to participate in an Executive Branch Simulation titled "If I Were President" and learn about the Judicial Branch in a "Testing the Constitution" Model Congress activity.
