Fair Lawn Student Leader Cristina Lara Meets Her Congressman

(Washington, DC)—On Thursday, February 28, 2008, Congressman Steve Rothman (D-Fair Lawn) welcomed Cristina Lara, a sophomore at Fair Lawn High School, to his office in the nation's capital. Cristina was in town for the National Young Leaders Conference. The event was organized by the Congressional Youth Leadership Council and focused on inspiring young people to achieve their full leadership potential. In addition to meeting her Congressman, Cristina had the opportunity to participate in an Executive Branch Simulation titled "If I Were President" and learn about the Judicial Branch in a "Testing the Constitution" Model Congress activity.
