

Education & School Safety

Congressman

Rothman has always believed that the key to continuing America's prosperity in the future is ensuring that our children have an A+ education today. He supported the bipartisan education reform bill passed by Congress recently and he believes the federal government should help local communities build new schools and renovate old ones so property taxpayers are not saddled with the entire cost. He also supports reducing class sizes for our nation's students.

Click here to read related news

Learn about Congressman Rothman's "Secure Our Schools" Program