ROTHMAN TO HOLD SOCIAL SECURITY TOWN HALL MEETINGS ON MARCH 28th AND 30th

(Hackensack, NJ) -- "So far this year no issue has received more attention than the President's plan to change Social Security," said Congressman Steve Rothman (D-Fair Lawn), in announcing that he will host a series of four public Town Hall Meetings on Social Security during the last week of March.

"I've already received over 1700 letters, emails, faxes and phone calls this year on the topic of Social Security. The President is touring the nation promoting his plan and various advocacy groups are running radio, television and newspaper ads touting their various positions on the issue. So I think this is an appropriate time to get together with my constituents, look at the facts and have a discussion about the future of the most successful government program in the history of our country," said Rothman.

The meetings are open to all and people are free to attend any or all of the meetings. Persons requiring special accommodations to attend or participate in the meetings should contact the Congressman's office at 201/646-0808.
