

Rothman Attends Reception Honoring Armenian Catholicos, His Holiness Aram I of the Great House of Cilicia

On Friday, October 21, 2005, Congressman Steve Rothman attended a reception hosted by the Armenian National Committee of New Jersey in Montvale, New Jersey honoring His Holiness Aram I, Catholicos of the Great House of Cilicia. Rothman welcomed His Holiness Aram I (pictured far right, sitting next to the Archbishop of the Prelacy for the Eastern Region of the U.S., Archbishop Oshagan Choloyan) to New Jersey and spoke to his audience about the importance of recognizing the Armenian Genocide and of continued U.S. economic and military support for Armenia.