

Rothman Attends Reception Hosted by Ohel Children's Home and Family Services

On Wednesday, November 2, 2005, Congressman Steve Rothman attended a reception hosted by Ohel Children's Home and Family Services, in appreciation of the New York, New Jersey, and Florida Congressional Delegations. Rothman praised the Brooklyn-based organization for its services to individuals and families, both children and adults, who are touched by personal challenges and their advocacy for the Jewish community.
