Rothman
Vows to Continue Fighting for Workers' Rights During New Jersey Association of Letter Carriers Event

(Washington, DC)-On Thursday, March 6, 2008, Congressman Steve Rothman (D-NJ) was pleased to address annual the New Jersey State Association of Letter Carriers gathering in the nation's capital. During his remarks, Rothman, who has a 100% voting record on National Association of Letter Carriers (NALC) issues, stated that he will continue to fight to protect jobs with good benefits for working men and women. Congressman Rothman has also been an outspoken opponent of the Bush Administration's effort to outsource letter carrier jobs to non-union workers.
