

Honoring Flag Day in North Bergen

During a Flag Day Presentation at North Bergen's Horace Mann School on June 13th, Congressman Steve Rothman (D-Fair Lawn) thanked Corporal Aristos Kinis of Cliffside Park, NJ for his service. Cpl. Kinis is enlisted in the U.S. Marine Corps and has served in the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan.

For Immediate Release: June 18, 2008

Contact: Kimberly Allen, (202) 226-8364; (202) 420-1524 [cell]

Congressman Rothman Thanks Soldier from Cliffside Park at Flag Day Celebration

(North Bergen, NJ)-During a Flag Day Presentation at North Bergen's Horace Mann School on June 13th, Congressman Steve Rothman (D-Fair Lawn) thanked Corporal Aristos Kinis of Cliffside Park, NJ for his service. Cpl. Kinis is enlisted in the U.S. Marine Corps and has served in the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan.

"Today, we honor our flag and the values of freedom and equal justice for all that it represents. We are also pleased to be here today with one of our nation's heroes, Corporal Aristos Kinis, who has rendered courageous and outstanding service to our nation," said Rothman.

Together, Congressman Rothman and Corporal Kinis presented the school with a flag that had been flown over the U.S. Capitol in honor of the Horace Mann School's 2008 Flag Day celebration. Approximately 550 students in grades 5 through 8 participated in the day's festivities, along with the school's Principal, Jorge Prado, North Bergen Mayor Nick Sacco, and teacher and Fairview Councilman John Pierotti.

###