

Hackensack

```
st1\:* {
BEHAVIOR: url(#ieooui)
}
```

Hackensack is home to approximately 43,000 residents, making it the most populous municipality in Bergen County. It is located approximately seven miles west of New York City and from different locations one can take in breathtaking views of the New York skyline.

Hackensack's rich historical landmarks include the First Dutch Reformed Church, known as the "Church on the Green." Built in 1696, it is the oldest church in Bergen County and the second oldest church in New Jersey. The New Jersey Naval Museum and the World War II submarine USS Ling are also located in Hackensack.

You can read about Hackensack, its history, local government and points of interest at the City of Hackensack's Web site: <http://www.hackensack.org/>

How Can I Help?

If you are a resident of Hackensack and would like to request assistance with a federal agency, please fill out and submit this privacy form.

Congressman Rothman Working for District 9

Click on the links below for news about how Congressman Rothman is working ofr the residents of Hackensack.

{mos_ri:hackensack_town}

More Hackensack News

- Bergen News (<http://www.bergennews.com>)
- Hackensack Chronicle (<http://www.hackensackchronicle.com/>)
- The Record of Bergen County (<http://www.northjersey.com/towns/hackensack.html>)

If you would like to see a media outlet added to this list, please contact us .